

ADVERTISEMENTS AND ENDORSEMENTS

Description

The Editors encourage anyone wanting to support the Bulletin or historical research to advertise in future issues. The 2020/21 Edition contains three.

1. ADJ Enterprises, Leesburg. ADJ donated conferences bags for the county-wide Dirt Don't Burn Conference, November 10, 2018 "Whether you are looking for a specific item or just browsing for ideas, our site is your one-stop shopping source. From fun items to the traditional, you can easily search for some of the hottest items on the market, and we are here for you 24 hours a day - 7 days a week." Address: 2A Loudoun St., Suite 215, Leesburg, VA 20175.
2. Photoworks, Leesburg. "Repairing History, one image at a time." Photoworks donated thousands of dollars of labor and material needed to reproduce historical photographs discovered by the Edwin Washington Archives in Loudoun and other locations. Not only were photographs digitally reproduced, but enhanced versions were also created that corrected physical tears and stains. Address: 2 Loudoun St SW Ste A, Leesburg, VA 20175

3. League of Women Voters. The league has been enormously important to civil rights in Loudoun, supporting the rights of woman and voters in general and also Black education. Mary Ann Penniston was the first Black supervisor of teachers in Loudoun at a time when the School Board was opposed to the concept and cost of supervisors; but the league advanced the idea, as a needed innovation to improve school instruction, which lead the way for Penniston to be hired in 1920. Address: League of Women Voters of Loudoun County, P.O. Box 822, Leesburg, VA 20178
